

Recall: 4-packs of Chobani® Flip® Key Lime Crumble®

4-packs of Chobani® Flip® Key Lime Crumble®

While the list of ingredients and the allergy statements on both the overwrap of the multi-packs and the individual products inside correctly disclose the presence of wheat, which is a known allergen, a statement on the overwrap label erroneously states "No Gluten.". This withdrawal action affects products that were distributed to retail customers nationwide between November 28, 2017 and January 16, 2018. Other products are not affected. For consumers with allergy concerns or celiac disease, consumption could lead to potentially adverse reactions. For those without wheat allergen concerns, the product is okay to consume.

All other Chobani® products including 5.3oz single-serve Chobani® Flip® Key Lime Crumble® are not affected. Again, the labeling error only impacts Chobani® Flip® Key Lime Crumble® 4-packs.
